Leprechaun Days

by James Norman

Last month ICMC members, Edward, Rick, Keith James & Lisa, Juan and James participated in the annual Leprechaun Days show at Hardware Sales hosted by Fourth Corner Elites . Most of us met at our usual spot and headed north, Keith & Dawn joining us later. Joe and Roland showed later but did not participate in the show. It was a great show with many cars from different eras, friends such as Sue Henifin and the Dahlbecks. ICMC members even made a few new friends including a couple of Shelybys that were in the show. After the show we all drove down to Boomers for burgers and ice cream. A great day indeed. Oh, I forgot the most important part. ICMC members did pretty good at the show; Miss Lisa landed a 1st place win in her class, James won a 2nd place in his category with Edward scoring the 1st place spot. On top of that James Gram won the 50/50 to the tune of $104.00. Yep, a good day for ICMC..

Tulip Rallye

by James Norman

On April 14th of April, Carol & Morty, Faye, Roland & Katie, and James & Sonya participated in the 37th annual Tulip Rallye, hosted by the MG club. The weather was less than hospitable. It was raining, it was cold and it was windy. There were representatives of many different clubs, Mini, Mercedes, Cougar, MG, Delorean, and of course our Mustangs... except for James & Sonya. They chickened out and left their pony at home. The Rallye would take them all over western Skagit County in search of clues and riddles. Though ICMC didn't win in any Rallye categories, Roland won a raffle prize and fun was had by all.
