Stangpede Cruise

by James Norman

On Saturday, June 23rd the Thompson's, the Greybecks and James Norman joined Stangpede on their cruise to Plain Washington. We met at the Smokey Point rest stop and headed to Monroe where the cruise officially started.

After a quick driver's meeting we were off. The cruise headed east on SR 2 through Steven's Pass to Plain Washington. Once we arrived in Plain, we were joined by Susan and her 1970 convertible. Stangpede' hosted a car show and a picnic James and the Thompsons won raffle and door prizes and Susan walked away with a win in her class. After the car show we all headed to the 59er Diner for milkshakes and conversation. A great day, had by all.

Pony Trails

by James Norman

The Thompsons and James headed down to Bellevue for Mustangs Northwest' annual Pony Trails cruise. Arriving in Bellevue, we were pleased to be the first arrivals. In all there were 50 cars on the cruise. This year's cruise went to Mud Mountain Dam.

July Meeting Notes

Meeting took place at Flyers in Burlington

50/50 was not played.

The meeting started at 7:00 with 16 members and one guest attending.

Old Business: We have had to cancel our car show.

New Business: Ideas for a new venue for our next show where discussed.

Upcoming car shows were discussed and cruise meet ups to these shows were set.

August meeting location will be at Bob's Chowder House.

Skagit Casino Show

The Skagit Casino hosted their inaugural show. There was so much interest that the casino actually had to close registration. Carol and Faye were the only two ICMC members to get into the show.

James, Roland & Katey headed over to support Faye & Carol and enjoy the lunch buffet.
