March 2018

Cruise to Semiahmoo

by James Norman

On March 1st, seven ICMC members and three new members headed off to Birch Bay and the Semiahmoo resort. We had a nice drive to the resort and an amazing lunch. We showed our naughty side by upsetting the neighbors with our parking antics. After lunch we cruised down to Fairhaven to Zane's for ice cream . Since we are a club that can't say "NO" to indulgences, we all climbed back into our Mustangs for the drive home via the scenic Chuckanut drive.

Two was the number of the day, as we had; two Foxes, two yellow cars, two ROUSHes , two convertibles two S550s and two blue cars.

Mostly we had a great day with friends old and new. We even picked up a couple of new members

This eagle greeted us as we crossed the causeway to Semiahmoo.
