North Olympic Mustang Club Cruise

by James Norman

On the 5th of May James, Carol and Faye caught the 8:00 ferry to Port Townsend. Upon docking they made a hasty run to the FORD dealer in Port Angeles. Once they arrived they joined Susan, Roland & Katie and Rick & Laura for a cruise hosted by North Olympic Mustang Club.

The cruise took participants to the Coast Guard station, Dungeness Spit, and the John Wayne Marina, as well as all points in between. The weather was perfect and the scenery was even better. The only negative was Susan's battery dying on her mid cruise. James pulled out of the cruise and stayed with her until her tow arrived, and then drove her into the dealer. After the cruise everyone checked into the motel and went to dinner at Downriggers. We were lucky to get a great table next to a window with great views of the Sound.

On the morning of the 6th of May the ICMC contingent made their way to the show field.. Everyone parked in their designated classes and immediately started the final cleaning and shining of their cars. Once that was finished everyone gathered together to head to breakfast. Everyone but Faye and Carol that is. The group grabbed an outside table and kept a watchful eye for the duo. The breakfast was superb and once it was eaten Faye and Carol finally caught up to the rest of us. After breakfast I had an opportunity to wander the show and finish voting. There were quite a few really great cars. How would our ICMC cars do? At 3:00 the award ceremony started. With the late start to the awards, we were all worried as four of us had reservation for the 5:45 ferry. We made plans to meet at a lot across from the Ford dealership in town. Our first win came early as Miss Faye won a trophy in her class with her 65 2+2. Our next win came when Miss Carol landed a win in her class with her 08 GT convertible. Our last win came in the ROUSH class , where Rick and Miss Laura's P51A. As soon as that class was announced I took off. I eventually caught up to Miss Susan at the meeting point. She was worried that we wouldn't make it. Just as she uttered those words, Miss Faye and Miss Carol pulled in.

We didn't even let them slow down as we took off with Miss Susan in the lead. I followed, with miss Carol behind me and Miss Faye in the rear. We had 44 miles to go and 45 minutes to get there,

Needless to say we didn't really follow the speed limit. The scenery was blurring by as we drove on at break neck speed. I constantly moved to the far edges of my lane in order to get a glimpse of Miss Faye's Mustang. All was fine until we got in the home stretch, when a Prius pulled out in front of Miss Susan at a Round A Bout. The Prius led the way at breakneck pace of five miles an hour with the four of us gleefully following. That is called satire. You can guess how we really felt.

Suddenly the Prius pulled off onto a cross road... only to be replaced by a slow pick-up. I believe the pick up was related to the Prius as it was traveling just as slowly. We eventually made it to the ferry terminal, where we were the last four reservation holders to make it on board.
