Mustangs NW Meet and Greet

by James Norman

On Friday the 19th Ed & Shelly, Rick & Laura and James met up at Ed & Shelly's place. They were preparing for a cruise to Bill Pierre Ford. Once everyone was assembled they had a nice drive to "somewhere in Seattle", where they holed up at a local Fred Myers. After an hour or so and with a few more joining them, they all headed down to Bill Pierre Ford. Once there all the Mustangs were lined up, and then everyone waited. Speculations ran wild as who would make the Meet & Greet. Finally a couple of vehicles arrived and Jack Roush Jr, hopped out. Later he made the rounds signing everyone's Mustangs and memorabilia. Next the SHELBY girls made the rounds, posing for pictures with all of the mustangs and their owners. Later

James, Laura, Rick and a few others were talking when a "Mustang" guy came over wearing a cool Shelby polo. After a few minutes of idle chitchat, James asked "Which Mustang is yours"? The gentleman smiled, gestured to the new Shelbys and introduced himself as Gary Patterson, the President of Shelby. James quickly asked him to sign his car, Suzy Blu. Later there was speeches by Jack Roush Jr., Gary Patterson and others. It was a great day.

Mustangs Northwest Round-up

By James Norman

Mustangs Northwest hosted their People's Choice show, part of their annual Round-Up, on Sunday the 21st of July. Arthur, Juan, Susan, Sammy, the Thompsons, the Greybecks and James all headed down to Bellevue. Most of the group met at the Smokey Point Rest Stop at 5:30 leaving at 5:45 and picking Miss Susan on the way. The show was a blast and had a Mustang for every taste. At the award ceremony, Arthur, Laura and Edward landed trophies.

Port Orchard Show

By James Norman

The Kitsap Mustang Club hosted their annual show on the 27th of July. ICMC members met up at 5:15 and cruised down together. The drive was nice and punctuated by crossing over the Tacoma Narrows Bridge. Once arrived, participants were photographed and directed to their class parking areas.

August Meeting Notes

Meeting took place at Bob's Burgers & Brew in Burlington.

The meeting started at 7:00 .

There were 8 members attending

Old Business: The Bellevue and Port Orchard shows, were discussed. We need revenue to cover the bills. There was talk of canceling the website and going strictly social media. It would save $250 a year. Storage is $360, we need to find somewhere to store our gear. Ideas are needed to bring in members and revenue, if we want to have a show.

New Business: We will have a Potluck dinner out at Katie and Roland's place.

Ideas of impromptu Show & Shines
50/50 was not played.

The September meeting will be at the Corner Restaurant at Sharpe's corner.
