On the 22nd of June the McDugald's, Edward & Shelly, Rick and James met up at the old McDonald's in Burlington for a cruise to Artist Point. The route took them down I-5, across Prairie Rd, up SR9, over the Mosquito Lake Bridge, and then on up to Artist Point. After a photo op we headed over to the Baker Lake cafe

Twin City Idler's Show

By James Norman

The Twin City Idlers hosted their annual show on the last weekend of June. Edward & Shelly, Arthur, James, Rick and Sammy met up at Shipwreck Coffee at 7 am. After the obligatory wiping down of their cars and a few coffee orders (Shipwreck makes a mean Frapucino) they headed into downtown Stanwood. Cars were already lined up, as they made their way in. ICMC cars were placed across from the school. The show stretched on for at least seven blocks and consisted of just about every type of car. There were many of ICMC friends and we even ran into the folks that bought Rob's Saleen. There were over 500 cars and 200 awards. Sadly ICMC didn't place in any category.
