February 2019

Cruise to Blue Mountain Grill

On January the 20th seven of ICMC member cars and a minivan met up at the old McDonalds in Burlington for a leisurely cruise to Blue Mountain Grill. A few routes were discussed before a back route along Colony Rd., Lake Samish and Lake Whatcom was agreed on.

The roads were open and the skies were clear, as our group made their way. There was one small glitch in Bellingham where the group become split, but eventually all made it to the restaurant, for good food and conversation. A great day, had by all. Perhaps you can join us on the next cruise.

Vancouver Cars & Coffee , and More

On January the 27th, the Thompsons, the Greybecks and James Norman all met up at the old Burlington McDonalds, at oh so early -o'clock. After a leisurely breakfast and conversation, we loaded up our Mustangs and headed towards the border. We opted for the truck crossing and it was a wise decision as we wisked across the border with just a modicum of delay. We crossed bridges, traveled through tunnels and dealt with Vancouver's traffic before making our way to a Starbucks.

We were some of the first cars, and went inside for coffee. Upon returning, we were pleasantly surprised that most of the other Mustangs had parked adjacent to us. The rest of the morning was filled with great cars and great conversation.

At the end of the event we enjoyed a brisk drive along the coast to a local Provenical park, where we stumbled onto an "event". All in all it was a great day. You should join us on our next adventure cruise.
