Goldie's Full Circle

by James Norman

On December 8th of 2008, I wandered into my local FORD dealer, after work for an oil change. Being bored I decided to wander around the lot. Just outside the door I noticed a new GT convertible in white with a tan interior and top. I was told that the car was not new but used and only had 11k miles. I bought it on the spot, trading in my wife's 07 Fusion. Once under my procession, I researched her and found that she sold new at another local Ford dealer in Anacortes in December of 2004. We added gold stripes and dubbed her, Goldie.

Years and car shows came and went and she was sold on in 2016.

This past Christmas Eve, I was perusing Craigslist looking for a project car when I stumbled upon, our Goldie. She had found herself back at her original dealer, once again in December. She didn't last there long. Perhaps in a few years she might find herself back there in December.

Cruise to Big Lake

by James Norman

Just before Thanksgiving a bunch of ICMC members gathered at the old McDonald's for a cruise. The plan was to take a leisurely drive through the countryside to the Big Lake Bar and Grill.
